

Break bulk

Bristol Port handles break bulk cargoes across a wide range of trades and has the capability to handle the largest break bulk vessels in operation

Image not found or type unknown

Saga Welco on berth at Royal Portbury Dock

Bristol Port has a long history in break bulk; the first vessel to call the newly opened Royal Portbury dock in 1978 was owned by Gearbulk. Today Bristol Port has regular calls from G2 Ocean, Pan Ocean, Saga Welco and Spliethoff. Cargoes currently handled include Steel, Plywood, KLB, Paper and Woodpulp.

We operate over 1 million square feet of high quality, quayside warehousing ^[1] with polished concrete floors for the storage of break bulk cargoes as well as extensive open storage areas.

For further information contact us on +44(0)117 982 0000 or email our Commercial team ^[2].

We will also be exhibiting at Breakbulk Europe 2023 6th - 8th June 2023 at the Rotterdam Ahoy.

- Home
- Profile
- Local Services
- Newsletter
- Policies
- Secure Access
- Sitemap
- Terms and Conditions
- Feedback

Source URL: <https://www.bristolport.co.uk/trades/break-bulk>

Links

[1] <https://www.bristolport.co.uk/trades/warehousing> [2] <https://www.bristolport.co.uk/trades/commercial-contacts>