Customs

We are here to help with Customs requirements

Day One No Deal (D1ND) Arrangements

For guidance on customs simplifications for trading with EU countries that will apply in the event of a Day 1 No Deal (D1ND) scenario please see <https://www.bristolport.co.uk/trades/commercial-contacts/customs/d1nd> ^[1].

Approvals

The Bristol Port Company holds a UK Border Agency Customs Port Approval and a Type A Public Customs Warehouse approval allowing plywood, liner board, timber, aluminium and steel.

Clearances

The Port handles electronic clearances through the Destin8 ^[2] system and can provide details of local agents who are Destin8 badge holders if required. Please contact commercial@bristolport.co.uk ^[3] for further information.

Compliance

Please note that customers are responsible for notifying HMRC of their specific holdings, ensuring timely releases and otherwise complying with customs procedures. The Port is responsible for notifying HMRC of any compliance issues.
